PRACTICE CASS.

The U. S. sgt. Sheridan Shook and others.

This was a common law judgment on a bond for $3,000, given by the defendants, conditioned for the payment of the value of certain Interval Revenue stamps issued to Mr. Shook. A capies was served on the defendants, who made default. The damages were assessed and an execution issued and leviod spon the property of one of the defendants. He thereupon applied to the court, on affidavit to open the default, to show cause and in order. A stay of execution in the meantime was graated.

to show cause and in order. A stay of execution in the meantime was gracted.

The motion was argued and denied, the court saving that it was probable on the affidavits that there was an error in the accounts between Shook and Baker in reference to the transnction, but that was not a matter which concerned the United States; that the amount due was stated in the copia; so that the decendants were not misled by that, and the damages were assessed accordingly on the failure of the defundants to appear and no reason was shown why that default similable be opened as against the United States. Motion denied, and stay set aside.

For the motion, Mr. Fine; in opposition, Mr. Phelps,

It may be that the libelant had some property shipped with his baguage and would be fairly entitled to be recompensed by the vessel for its low on board, had his tertimony on the occasion been bonest and trustworthy, but his declaration to Holmes in respect to the contents of his trunk stands in hold contradiction to his written eath in Coart, and shows a deliberate determination to fabrify that eath and cheat the vessel cut of at least $1,029 by means of downright perjary. No Court of justice would give counterance to so fragrant a crime, and the Court must accordingly pronounce that the crimene upon which the suit is sought to be maintained is not entitled to any logal credit.

CRIMINAL COURTS. COURT OF SPECIAL SESSIONS.

Saturday's calendar was unusually long for the last scasions' day in the week, which is generally shorter than on either of the previous days. There were on the list 57 cases, had agreed to pay, and when the men became about door was shut in their face. The backmen then kicked door, and threw stones through the window, and wh Simmons came to the door to order them away.

door, and threw stones through the window, and when Mr. Simmons came to the door to order them away. Quisine attacked him and then when when Mr. Eskele, who chanced too be a great in the house that evening, interfered to separate the combatants, the other hackman. Sydney Smith, took an immense benider, as big as he could lift conveniently, and altempted to throw it in the face of Mr. Simmons, who was boung held down at this time by Quinine. The fight now became general, and both the drivers and the two gentlemen were engaged for some minutes in paying each other mutual puglistic attentions. The belligerent knights of the whip were at last driven off, and next day were day arrested. They were shut up for two months each.

This is a well-understood game among the hack-driving gentry. One of the number will make a bargain with a man to carry him to his destruction for a certain sum; be them puts him into the carriage of a second driver, who, when he remokes his journey's ead charges generally double what the passenger agreed to pay. Four out of five of the passengers, seeing that the driver is not the one with whom the agreement was made, will believe on that individual's solem protestation, that tother fellow and I was to get five dollars, and I don't know nother. The dodge is an old one, but is generally successful, and the traveling public should know it, and reader to be cheated no longer.

A LONG-CONTINUED LARCHNI.—The old story of the two

A LONG-CONTINUED LARCENT.—The old story of the two broom makers, one of whom could not understand how, al-though he stole all his material, he still could not sell his wares as cheap as his competitor and, on purchasing the secret, was informed by the other that it was only to steal his brooms informed by the other that it was only to sheat his brooms 'ready-toute," finds a sort of parallel among some of the news-dealers of the city. The reason why some of them could sell their wares much cheaper than their heighbors, and yet make more moner than those who got a larger price for the same goods, was fally made manifest by the developments in a case on Saturday, in the Court of Sessions. The whole secret simply is that, like the broom-maker, they stole their goods, "ready-made," or had others do it for them.

is that, like the broom-maker, they stole their goods "readymade," or had others do it for them.

For some weeks a most inexplicable falling-short in the numbers of the various editions was noticed in the office of Frank Leslie's various publications. The proper number of blank sheets would be counted out and given to the foreman of the press rooms, but the return of printed papers fell most lamentably short every week. The leak was a most serious one, for the number of papers less than the proper number varied from 2,000 to 3,500 every week. There was but one way of accounting for the clarming dedicioney—the papers must be stelen by some one. Mr. Leslies applied to the Central Police Office, and Inspector Carpetter delegated Detective
James P. Beunett to "work up" the case. After making care ful inquiries, suspicious was fixed on certain ones in the presroom, and a careful watch was set. At 50 elock in the mering the officer on the watch observed a man leaving the britiing with a large, bundle concessed under his coat. Being stopped and scarched, the mas was discovered to be Richard Welsh, a "inglet pressman," employed by Leslie, and his bundle was made up of 20 copies of one of the men in the habit of Frank Leslie's philications.

Weish said that the other men had also been in the habit of taking the papers from the edilec, though Mr. White the grosecutor, and agent for Mr. Lesile, said that there is a pacard pasted in the edilec for Mr. Lesile, said that there is a pacard pasted in the edilec for hidding the employes to take as much as a single paper from the premises. Walsh was sent to the Pentientary for three months.

This is the source from which the raseally paper selects before referred to derive their supplies. Thirty or ferty men and boys being employed in the printing reom, if half of them and disposed to this vary, can make way with a great many papers in a week, all of which find ready sale to certain of those news atand keepers, who are always ready to pay a small price for the stolen goods. Of course, no reference is here intended to the respectable news dealers, who are, as a body, as scrupicusly honest body of traders. Other publishers of weekly and mentally journals have met large losses in the same manner as Mr. Leslie; and this exposure will doubtless put the amalier dealers, who buy the spoils, on the watch, and it may be difficult to catch them hereafter.

Chullit to Annals.—Francis Berghause was charged by CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.-Francis Berghause was charged by William Herring, a policeman, with beating his borse with a cart-rung. In defense, counsel said that the horse was a very bally and obstinate one, and that the man told the officer what he was beating the animal for. The justice hit the point of the affair by the question, "Did he tell the fores what he was beating him for " There was no question that, lusteed of punishing the horse judiciously for a fault which the animal could know he had committed, the driver was formuly beating him about the body to vent his own senseless and unreasoning passion. He gave the name of Joseph Hoey. The prisoner passed the night in the Station-Hume, and yesterday morning Justice Dowling committed him for trial on the charge of having in his possession burglarons implements with intent to commit a felony. When first discovered, Hoey had in his company three young, out these latter managed to clude arrest. VIOLATING THE LICENSE LAW.—Capt. Hartt of the Harbor Police, on Saturday last arrested John, James and George Sweeney, whom he found on board the schooner lingfisher, lying in the Earbor. THIRD DISTRICT, (ESSEX MARKET) POLICE COURT, [Before Justice Manufield.]

There was very little of consequence done in this Court yesterday. The examination of the case of Alice Young who sharged one James Carrel, with having committed a rape upon her, was deferred, as was the case of Margaret Martin, upon her, was deferred, as was the case of Margaret Martin, who charged Adam Sunar, with having abandoned her. Sarah O'Raurke was brought in by an Officer on a charge of having been playing the character, while drunk, of a hungry hyens among her neighbors. She gave ample proof of the correctness of the charge while in Court, by villiving this discretization of the charge while in Court, by villiving this Judge and tearing the officers. She was sent up for a knowth, and loft for the cells, with the threat that she would "set her man" to kill the Judge.

Charies Wollen, a weaver, was sent to Plackwell's Island for six months, on a charge of having forced his wife to keep a house of ill-fame.

ARREST BY HARBOR POLICE.-Capt. Hartt brought

They gave their names as Sweeney, and were committed by Justice Dowling in default of ball. They belong to Brooklyn. The Cautain says that a majority of the arrests made by his force are from New-Jersey or Brooklyn, but they are brought before the City Courts because the other communities have ne jurisdiction outside their piers.

The following is a statement of business at the United States Assay Office at New-York for the month ending Sept. 29, 1865; 300,000 00

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC

RAILROAD CO. OF CALIFORNIA. ABLE SEMI-ANNUALLY, ON THE FIRST DAY OF JANUARY

PRINCIPLE AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN U. S. GOLD COIN IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

Amount of Issue, $7,336,000. In Coupen Bonds of $1,000

The Bonds have Thirty Years to run, and are secured by a First Mortgage, constituting an absolute prior lieu on that portion of the Road, Equipments, Franchises, and Entire Property of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, located in the State of California, and extending from Sacramento City to the Colifornia State Line, forming a part of the GREAT PACIFIC RAILBOAD ROUTE, adopted and aided by the UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

The amount of these First Mortgage Bonds to be issued per mile is limited by law to the amount of United States Bonds allowed and issued to aid the construction of the Road, and the Mortgage by which they are secured is declared by Act of Congress to constitute a dien prior and superior to that of the United States Government.

The aid received from the Government (in amount equal to this First Mortgage) is economically and judiciously applied to the construction and equipment of the Road, together with nearly $7,000,000 received from Stock Subscriptions and other sources. The First Morigage therefore amounts to but about 35 per cent of the actual cost and value of the Property which it covers.

The road is now completed, equipped and running from Sacramente City to Alta, a distance of 73 miles, and the earnings for the three months ending August 1st were as June, 1866. 67,429 78 July, 1866...... 85,000 00 IN GOLD. The earnings are steadily increasing, and are estimated at over $100,000 in gold for the month of August -- the official report for that month not having been received at this The construction of the road is going vigorously forward,-24 miles additional being nearly ready for the cars,and it will probably se in full operation to the California

State line-156 miles from Sacramento City-during the Summer of 1867, when its earnings must be very large, as the entire trade of Nevada, and a large proportion of that of Utah, Idaho, and Montana must pass over its line. It has been shown by reliable statistics that in 1863 over $13,000,000 in gold was paid for freighting goods from Call fornia to Nevada alone.

This part of the Great Pacific Railroad route is destined to be one of the most profitable lines of railroad in the world, and its First Mortgage bonds are among the best ocured and most desirable investments ever offered. Over $1,000,000 has already been expended in grading beyond the point to which the road is now running, and the iron is bought and paid for sufficient to lay the track the entire distance to the State Line. The Road has been completed and equipped thus far current in this city, and the Bonds will be forwarded to any address by Express, free of charge. Inquiries for further particulars, by mail or otherwise, will receive pun FISE & HATCH, Bankers No. 5 Nassan-st., New-York
